Hear From Our Graduates

"From day one, the support has been incredible. My people leaders and team have been so encouraging, always taking the time to share their expertise and answer questions, no matter how small. The in-field training has been one of the most valuable parts of the program, helping me build real world skills quickly. I've also really enjoyed being involved in a range of new projects and initiatives. The genuine culture of support and growth has made me feel truly welcome at Opteon."

Charlotte Knight

"The managers and mentors have been really helpful and important throughout my time of being a grad valuer. We've been offered a large amount of training and learning opportunities at Opteon which has been hugely beneficial for all of us grads. We are learning from experts at the business and we couldn't be more grateful. We run regular training session covering a large range of topics which has helped me get to the point where I am today."
